Dear friends / Estimados amigos,

She did not just bump into Jesus. She carefully planned how to approach Him and get the miracle that she needed . . . A frustrated synagogue official approaches Jesus frantically because his young daughter is at death's door. He implores Jesus to save her, after perhaps having waited by the Sea for Jesus' return . . .

Mark the Evangelist packs many things into today's gospel reading. It moves at a near breathless pace. The apostles have weathered a terrible storm – which almost fills their boat with water – in the middle of the lake. Then Jesus cured a man of a demon, who flees into a pack of pigs who meet their demise. After finally returning to Jewish territory after his travels in a foreign territory, Jesus encounters the two mentioned above, both of them desperate for a miracle. The Lord responds. First he immediately accepts Jairus' plea for help for his daughter and heads right for his house, trailed by a curious crowd wanting to see what would happen. Curiously, He stops in the middle of the bustle and asks who just touched Him. While it may have seemed to many a nonsensical question, it soon becomes apparent why Mark highlights the incident.

The minute she touched Jesus, the woman knew she was cured. After twelve years of wasting her monies on quacks and enduring years of isolation from the community (remember, she had a blood disease, and contact with blood was forbidden in Jewish Law), she finally had her cure. The outcast, impure woman became a public example of a faith in Jesus that heals and restores. She was summoned out of her anonymity by Jesus, who called her "daughter." Presumably Jesus wanted Jairus and the crowd to witness what had happened. Her desperation was overcome by hopefulness. Jesus told Jairus to put faith over fear, but the woman's faith was so audacious that she broke religious taboos. She put faith in God's goodness rather than the limitations put on her by the Law.

Jairus received his miracle as well. Jesus led him through fear to faith, and he saw his daughter return to life. It is too bad we lose track of these characters after today. Was the woman one of the faithful woman who stayed with Jesus to the end? Did Jairus step up for Jesus when the leaders plotted against Him? We will never know this side of heaven. But we do know their examples of faith, enough (perhaps) to help us contemplate the heart of Christ.

Remember that to qualify for the "early bird" prizes, you need to have your returns in to the parish center or in the weekly envelope collection by July 29. Thank you for your support of this major fundraiser for the Parish!*

HAVE A GOOD WEEK EVERYONE!

From the Missionary Servants of the Most Blessed Trinity: Collection and Speaker Next Weekend

At next weekend's Masses, Sr. Olivia Montejano, MSBT, will speak on behalf of the Missionary Servants of the Most Blessed Trinity. "The Holy Spirit fortifies our work to open new missions and serve established missions. Our call is to take on the 'abandoned work' of the Church. We find ourselves in poor or remote places where people need material help and spiritual encouragement." The Missionary Servants of the Most Blessed Trinity work in Philadelphia and throughout the U.S., Mexico, and Puerto Rico in the areas of social services, young adult ministry, outreach to migrant workers, health care, at-risk children's programs, retreat ministries, and family life development programs. Please show your support next week for the Missionary Servants of the Most Blessed Trinity as they celebrate their 100 year anniversary and continue to be "A Power for Good!"

For more information on the Missionary Servants of the Most Blessed Trinity, find a link to their organization on our webpage at www.ststanislaus.com or go to www.msbt.org and look for MSBT pamphlets and prayer request cards at all entrances of the church.

SPOTLIGHT THIS WEEK: SACRAMENTS

Children prepare to receive Reconciliation and First Communion in 2nd grade. They must complete the Level 1 faith formation curriculum prior to enter Level 2 to prepare for these two Sacraments. Is your baptized child in 2nd grade or higher in public school and has never been enrolled in a formal religious education program? No worries...it's never too late to begin preparing to receive the sacraments!

Confirmation will be conferred by the Bishop on our 7th grade students beginning in Spring 2020. Ongoing religious formation after their First Communion enables these young people to grow in both their spiritual lives and their knowledge of the Catholic faith. This will not only prepare them to receive the Sacrament of Confirmation but will also help them to be the person who God created them to be so that they can witness to Jesus' Gospel in all they say and do throughout their lives. As previously mentioned, it is never too late to enter a formal faith formation program and to participate in the Church through the Sacraments.

Do you have an older child who has never been baptized, or who may have been baptized in another Christian faith but who is interested in becoming Catholic? Please contact the PREP office at (215) 855-9893, or via email at ststanslr@comcast.net, to make an appointment to meet with Mrs. Leona Russell, Coordinator of Religious Education, to arrange for your child to begin his/her journey in the faith toward initiation into the Catholic Church. God's door is always open to welcome you, and so is ours!

El Decimotercer Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario: 1 de Julio de 2018

Recientemente, hemos escuchado sobre la desafortunada y muy triste situación de los niños separados de sus familias en la frontera. Naturalmente, muchos están indignados y los políticos continúan debatiendo. Algunos de ustedes pueden conocer a alguien afectado por esta trágica circunstancia. Juntos como comunidad, por favor oren por un rápido fin a esta injusticia y por los afectados, especialmente los niños. La Sagrada Familia, Jesús, María y José, también eran inmigrantes que viajaban a Belén y a Egipto cuando Herodes quería matar al bebé Jesús. Estoy seguro de que Jesús escucha los gritos de los niños que se ven obligados a separarse de sus padres. Sé que Nuestra Madre María está intercediendo por las madres que están sufriendo mientras ella sufre en su Corazón Doloroso. San José está al lado de los padres que no tienen poder para evitar que sus familias sean separadas para fortalecer sus corazones rotos. Lo que está sucediendo es realmente un ultraje y una tragedia. Debemos hacer todo lo que esté a nuestro alcance para orar, para que los niños y sus padres se reúnan pronto. Jesús, María y José, oren por nosotros y por todos nuestros hermanos y hermanas que sufren.

Pax et Bonum+Paz y Todo lo Bueno,
Padre Carlos
