

Dear Sunday Class 3ASu PREP students,

Welcome back to PREP! My name is Mrs. Kathleen Coleman, you can call me Mrs. C, and I am so excited to be teaching you this year! This is my eighth year teaching PREP at St. Stanislaus and my fourth year teaching 3rd. I previously taught the 2nd grade Sunday PREP class for 4 years. I bit about myself - I grew up in Philadelphia - first in St. Ambrose Parish and then St. Christopher's Parish (where Fr. Sean is from). I graduated from Cardinal Dougherty High School and then Temple University (Go Owls!). My husband Vincent and I moved to Lansdale in 2011, and we have 3 children: 17 year-old Maura (who teaches the Kindergarten PREP class), 14 year-old Grace, and 11 year-old Tim.

Our classroom aide is Miss Marina Dempsey. She has been volunteering in PREP for 10 years! We think we are going to have a superstar class! We are looking forward to meeting and getting to know all of you this year as you continue to learn more about God and our Church. I know we are going to have a lot of fun! Please feel free to reach out with any questions or concerns. I can't wait to begin the year and see all of you on September 15!

Warmly,
Mrs. Coleman
