Liturgical Studies

Elements of the Catholic Mass Study Series

The Second Vatican Council declared that the faithful should participate in the liturgy "fully aware of what they are doing." Elements of the Catholic Mass is designed to help the faithful better appreciate and understand the signs, symbols, gestures, words, and beauty of the Mass. Featuring Fr. Douglas Martis, former director of the Liturgical Institute, the program consists of thirty-one beautifully produced short videos (approximately 4 minutes long). The videos will be accompanied by guided discussion to further enhance understanding and provide answers to participants' questions. The goals of this study group are to lead its members to a more fully conscious and active participation in the liturgy as well as to serve as an introduction to deeper studies on the Eucharist as we complete the final year of the National Eucharistic Revival.

First & Third Thursdays of the month, beginning November 7th, 7:00-8:15pm, in the Parish Center.

Contact Daniel Mintz for more information: liturgyDM@protonmail.com.

Moms In Prayer

is a group of everyday mothers who come together to pray for their children, grandchildren and the schools they attend. This includes all levels of education in public, Catholic and private schools.

Our children have many concerns and needs. We welcome you to come and join us as together we lighten that burden by praying with you for your children.

For where two or three are gathered in my name there am I in the midst of them (Matthew 18:20)

Come experience the power of prayer which is magnified as we join together and pray for our children. We meet the first Monday of each month at 7pm in the Parish Center Chapel. Our next meeting is November 4th.

ALL you need is an open heart, all we need is you. If you have any questions, please call or text Mrs. Sharon Bellitto at 267-446-1365

St. Stanislaus Parish "GIFT" Program

Growing In Faith Together

Tuesday November 12th, 7:00 pm

Topic - "There Are No Atheists in Foxholes" - Turning to Our Faith in Times of Crisis

Speaker - Bobbi Toner

As we acknowledge Veterans Day, this topic is very timely. We will pay tribute to our military veterans in this presentation about the role of faith and the practice of religion on the battlefields of World War II. Our speaker, Bobbi Toner, will view the war through the eyes of the chaplains, soldiers, sailors, and prisoners of war who fought in this global conflict. We'll hear testimonies from members of the Greatest Generation about the conditions they experienced, and how their faith helped them get through it, while also embracing the principles of honor, duty, loyalty, and patriotism. In addition, we will discuss how we too can turn to our faith and put on the "armor of God" in times of stress and fear in our own everyday life's challenges outside of the battlefield.
